

Chris Werling
Atlanta, Georgia

Mr. Werling has been involved in the Consulting world for the last 18 years, the last 16 in management.

Early in his career, Mr. Werling worked with Word of Life Fellowship, performing various projects, including developing and executing training programs.

Before co-founding Cornerstone Solutions, Inc., Mr. Werling worked for a system integration and supply chain consulting firm where he was responsible for being involved in and managing large domestic and international projects.

In 1997 Mr. Werling organized a group of eight individuals to start their own supply chain management consulting firm, before determining that the right mix was found in three partners, which then ended up starting the new firm that year – Cornerstone Solutions, Inc. (CSI)

Mr. Werling and his team led the management consulting firm for 14 years, during which it grew extremely rapidly with virtually no outside capital, and was sold in February 2011. Some high-level achievements are

- Two main Strategic Business Units: Information Security & Supply Chain, independently sold in 2005 & 2011 respectively
- Offices in Fort Wayne, Indianapolis, Charlotte, Atlanta, & Orange County California
- Projects in over 40 states & 5 continents

Mr. Werling's main responsibilities as President were to oversee the sales, marketing, and administrative teams, along with managing the strategic growth of the organization. He also assisted with project management as well.
